DEPAUW UPENDS TRINITY FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SCAC TITLE

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – The 13th-ranked DePauw University Tigers defeated 14th-ranked Trinity University, 6-3, and captured their third straight Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference title. With the win, DePauw improved to 21-3 on the season and earned the conference's automatic qualification into the NCAA Division III Championship.

DePauw took a 2-1 lead with wins at second and third doubles and then won the match with singles victories at the number two through five slots. Four Tigers were named to the all-tournament team in singles play including Scott Sandager, Hunter Schouweiler, Bryan Heck, and Michael Rardon. Heck and Sandager were repeat selections on the all-tournament team from a year ago.

Trinity placed Max Frey (#1 singles) and Crisanto Ramirez (#6 singles) on the All-Tournament team. Ramirez earned a third consecutive appearance on the all-tournament team. Also repeating on this year's all-tournament team was Sewanee's Charlie Boyd.

Millsaps (Russell Anderson/David Bastian & Alex Cummings/Campbell Hughes) as well as DePauw (Rardon/Schouweiler & Will Gates/Scott Swanson) placed two doubles teams on the all-tournament team.

*Any player (or doubles team) that goes through the conference tournament undefeated is named to the all-tournament team automatically, but a player (or doubles team) must compete in at least two matches at the tournament to be considered. If no one player or team goes undefeated using the above criteria, then the next best record at that position will be named to the all-tournament team.
